SELECTED ACQUISITION REPORTS - HIGHLIGHTS

(As of June 30, 1991)

The Department of Defense has released details on major defense acquisition program cost and schedule changes since the March 1991 reporting period. This information is based on the Selected Acquisition Reports (SARs) submitted to the Congress for the June 30, 1991, reporting period.

SARs summarize the latest estimates of program cost, schedule, and technical status. These reports are prepared annually in conjunction with the President's budget. Subsequent quarterly exception reports are required only for those programs experiencing unit cost increases of at least 15 percent or schedule delays of at least six months.

The total program cost estimates provided in the SARs include research and development, procurement, and military construction. Total program costs reflect actual costs on delivered items as well as anticipated costs for future acquisitions. All estimates include allowances for anticipated inflation.

The cost for one of the reporting programs, ASAS, is classified, and is excluded from the March 1991 to June 1991 acquisition program cost track that follows. The current estimate of program acquisition costs for the remaining programs covered by SARs for the prior reporting period was $838,949.3 million. There was a net increase of $6,933.0 million during the current period.

	Current Estimate ($ in Millions)
March 1991 (96 programs*)	$ 838,949.3

There were seven quarterly SARs submitted for the March 1991 reporting period: EA-6B, F-14D, FMTV, JSTARS, SLAT, STINGER, and TITAN IV. The cost increase of $6,933.0 million, or +0.8 percent, was due primarily to: increased unit manufacturing costs estimated for FMTV ($+4,261.3 million) and higher Federal Retail Excise Tax for additional vehicles distributed in the continental United States ($+581.8 million); an increase of twelve F-14D aircraft and associated support costs ($+1,103.7 million) plus program shutdown costs ($+385.4 million); and Grumman business base impacts to the EA-6B program because of the F-14 cancellation ($+394.8 million).

Excludes Army's ASAS program due to classified costs.*

Does not add due to rounding.*
