

Mr. Michael F. Jaggard
Chief of Staff/Policy
Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Navy
Acquisition Management

Mr. Jaggard, a native of California, is the son of Lieutenant Commander and Mrs. Joseph F. Jaggard, USN (RET).

In 1967, he began his federal career in the United States Army serving as an Infantryman with the 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment in the Republic of Vietnam from January 1968 to January 1969. Upon release from active duty, Mr. Jaggard attended Texas A&I University, Kingsville, Texas, and received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Mathematics in 1971. He also holds an MS in Management from the Navy Postgraduate School.

Mr. Jaggard enlisted in the U.S. Navy in 1973. Upon graduation from Officer Candidate School, Newport, RI, and training at the Navy Supply Corps School, Athens, Georgia, he served as Supply Officer aboard USS WILL ROGERS (SSBN 659) (Gold) for three years. In 1977, he returned to Athens as an instructor. From 1979 to 1981, Mr. Jaggard served as Assistant Supply Officer aboard USS EMORY S. LAND (AS 39). After graduate school, he was assigned as a Principle Contracting Officer (PCO) at the Naval Sea Systems Command for four years. Reporting aboard Naval Regional Contracting Center, Philadelphia in 1986, Mr. Jaggard served first as Executive Officer and then as Commanding Officer. Following a highly successful command tour, he was transferred to the staff of Commander Submarine Force, U.S. Atlantic Fleet (SUBLANT) as the Submarine Supply Support Officer. This was followed by two years as Supply Officer, USS ORION (AS 18) home ported in La Maddalena, Italy. After decommissioning ORION, he served ten months as the Executive Assistant to the Deputy Commander for Contracts at NAVSEA, before assignment as Commander, Defense Contract Management Command, United Kingdom in 1994. In August 1996, Mr. Jaggard became the Deputy Commander for Contracts at the Naval Sea Systems Command, where he served for four years.

On 1 October 2001, Mr. Jaggard retired from the Navy as a Captain. He was appointed to the Senior Executive Service (SES) on 2 October 2001 and is currently the Chief of Staff/Policy to the Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Navy for Acquisition Management in the Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy for Research, Development and Acquisition.

Mr. Jaggard is married to Norma Jean Molina of Corpus Christi, Texas. They have one daughter, Victoria Marie Gilman, age 25.
