

Randy King

Headquarters, Department of Army

Program Manager, Contractors Accompanying the Force (CAF)

Deputy Chief of Staff: G-4

Mr. King has over 29 years of federal service in challenging Defense Logistics Agency (DLA), Department of the Navy, and Department of the Army assignments. His career includes a variety of key assignments in acquisition, supply and maintenance. Previous assignments include: the Titan/Centaur Space Program at General Dynamics Space Systems Division; Chief, Corps Forward Storage Activities in Germany, and Chief, Combat Vehicles, and subsequently Chief, Tactical Vehicles, with the Tank Automotive Systems Division, 200th Theater Army Materiel Management Center. He is now serving at Headquarters, Department of the Army in the Programs, Exercises and Studies Division of the Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff, G-4.

Mr. King is the Program Manager for Contractors Accompanying the Force (CAF) and the Logistics Civil Augmentation Program (LOGCAP) for Headquarters, Department of the Army. He is a graduate of the Army Management Staff College and his education includes degrees in Aviation and Law.