NO Trafficking in Persons

The United States has a “zero tolerance” policy against human rights abuses. All U.S. Defense contractors must treat employees fairly, domestically and abroad

WORKER BILL OF RIGHTS

Employees supporting U.S. installations abroad have many rights, including to:

- hold their passport or other identification documents
- receive agreed upon wages on time without unlawful deductions
- take lunch- and work-breaks
- leave the place of employment at any time
- report grievances without fear of reprisal
- have a copy of their employment contract in a language they understand
- work hours and be paid wages in line with legal in-country wages
- if housing is provided, live in habitable space that is comparable to others on the U.S. base
