MEMORANDUM FOR COMMANDER, UNITED STATES TRANSPORTATION
COMMAND (ATTN: ACQUISITION EXECUTIVE)

SUBJECT: Class Deviation - Early Payments for Civilian Reserve Air Fleet (CRAF)
Contracts

Effective October 1, 2010, this class deviation extends the authority for the United States Transportation Command (USTRANSCOM) to deviate from the requirements of FAR 32.906(a), Making Payments, to permit payments to air carriers in the CRAF program earlier than seven days prior to the later of (a) the 30th day after Government receipt of a proper invoice, or (b) the 30th day after the Government accepts the supplies/services is extended. This is an extension of the same authority previously granted under class deviation 2007-O0006.

Use by USTRANSCOM of this class deviation is contingent upon the following conditions:

- The negotiated payment terms do not provide for payments earlier than required by established commercial practices.
- Contract negotiations reflect an appropriate adjustment to profit in consideration of the early payments.

This deviation is effective until March 31, 2013, unless it is otherwise rescinded. My point of contact for this matter is Ms. Mary Overstreet, 703-602-0311 or mary.overstreet@osd.mil.
