SUBJECT: Publication of March 2012 Contract Data Scorecard

This memorandum is to notify you that the March 2012 Contract Data Scorecard metrics were posted at the Program Development and Implementation webpage [http://www.acq.osd.mil/dpap/pdi/eb/monthly_contract_distribution_metrics.html] in accordance with the Contract Data Scorecard memorandum dated 9 December 2011. March's Contract Data Scorecard is attached and available online at the link provided above. For instructions on how to read the Contract Data Scorecard metrics, please see Attachment 2.

The Department's compliance with the requirement to post contracting actions as Portable Document Files (PDFs) decreased 1.3% from February 2012 to March 2012. In addition, compliance with the requirement to post data at the line item level [using ANSI X.12 Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) standard transaction sets (850 and 860)] decreased 2.8% from February 2012 (82%) to March 2012 (79.2%).

The following Components are recognized for increasing the number of actions posted as data at the line item level (percent increase from the February to March): Department of Defense Education Activity (DoDEA) (25%); Defense Security Cooperation Agency (DSCA) (7.7%); and Missile Defense Agency (MDA) (22.9%).

Questions and comments on the contents of each scorecard may be directed to my action officer, Mr. Bruce Propert, 703-588-0830.

Richard Ginman
Director, Defense Procurement and Acquisition Policy

Interpreting the EDA Scorecard

What is the EDA Scorecard?

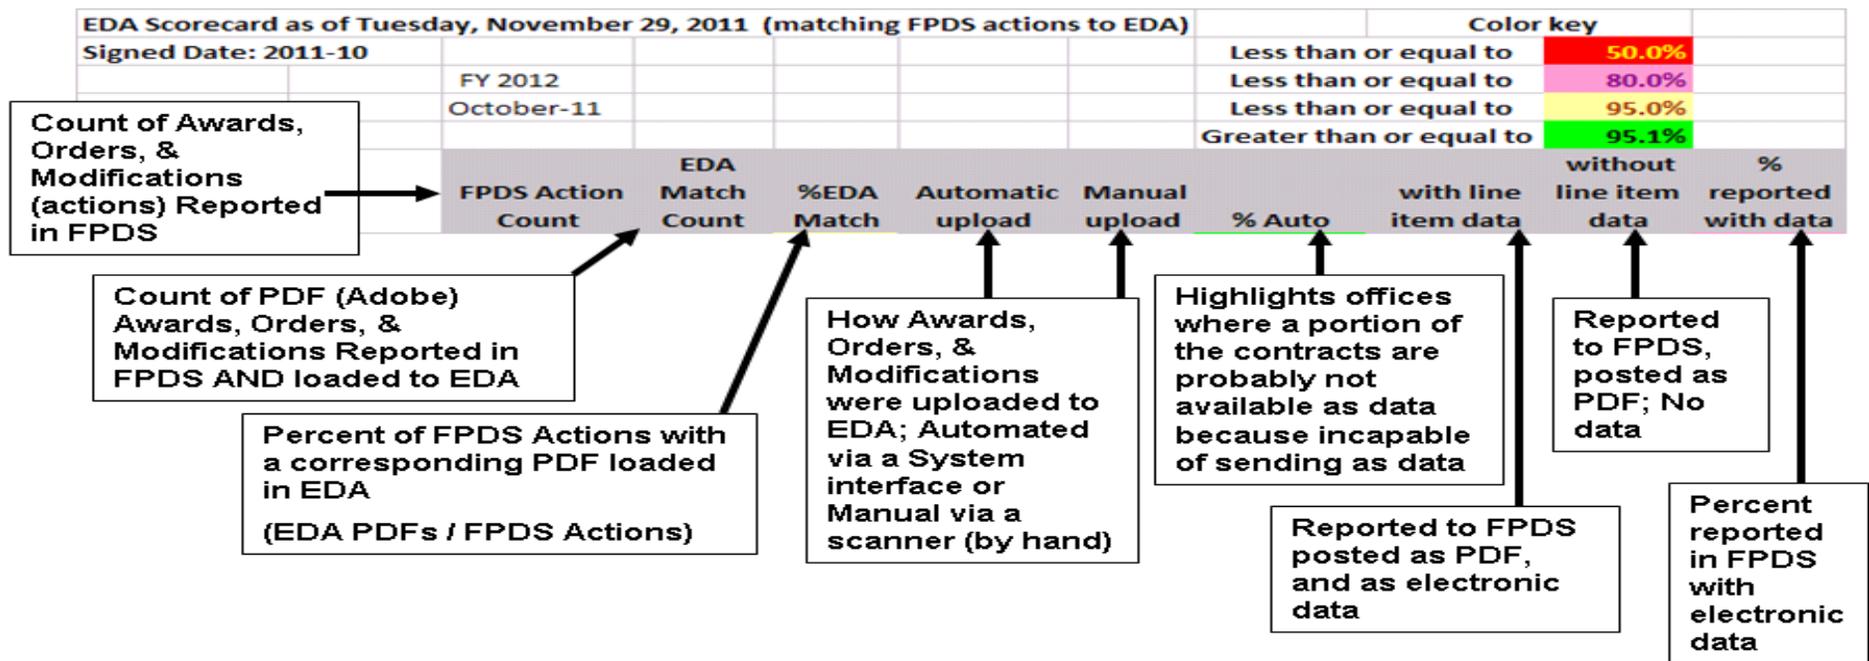

The EDA Scorecard measures compliance with the requirement in DFARS PGI 204.201 to send contract actions to EDA by comparing actions reported in FPDS to actions posted in EDA.

What the requirement?

DFARS PGI 204.201 requires all contract actions be sent as both document (Indexed Portable Document Format (PDF)) and data (either American National Standards Institute X.12 Electronic Data Interchange standard transaction sets (850 and 860) or DoD Procurement Data Standard eXtensible Markup Language (XML) format).

How does the EDA Scorecard work?

Each action reported in FPDS is checked to see if there is a corresponding document in EDA, whether the document was loaded automatically or manually¹, and whether line item data² was received. The totals are then summed by issuing office to show percent compliance.

¹ The number loaded manually is provided to help determine whether the absence of data indicates an inability to send data due to contracts being written outside automated contract writing systems (e.g. Microsoft Word).

² The index file sent with the PDF carries most of the basic data from the cover page of the contract such as issuing, administration and pay office DODAACs, contractor CAGE and DUNS, and contract number. The data file adds most of the data from the remainder of the contract, such as line item descriptions, amounts, schedules, funding, and delivery points and clauses.

A subtotal is presented for each Component.

The information (in percentages) is displayed for each issuing DODAAC within a Component.
