

Rose M. Bartlett

Director, Financial, Resource Management & Strategic Communications

Ms. Bartlett is responsible for developing, prioritizing, and implementing strategy for end-to-end Operational Contract Support (OCS)/Contingency Management (CM) program resource requirements and strategic communications. She leads all programming, planning, budgeting and execution (PPBE) efforts associated with OCS/CM to leverage cross-organization functional areas that create synergy toward common objectives and maximize efficiencies. Key elements of her portfolio include program lifecycle development-to-sustainment transition resource planning; capabilities integration; materiel readiness; inter-agency operational transition; and oversight of multi-program cost estimation for strategic planning.

She has over 23 years of Department of Defense experience at all command echelons leading and managing weapon system programs of all Acquisition Category designations. Prior to serving on OSD staff, she served as a senior staff officer to the Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Research, Development and Acquisition) for 6 years, leading policy development implementing the Defense Acquisition System (DAS) and the Joint Capabilities Integration and Development System (JCIDS) process. Previous civilian and military assignments include Assistant PEO TACAIR (Acquisition); Assistant Program Manager (Acquisition) for PMA 272's Advanced Tactical Aviation Protection Systems; Electronic Warfare Integration Lead for PMA265's F/A-18 E/F Super Hornet Program; Navy Program Manager for PMA 213's Joint Precision Approach and Landing System Program; and Air Traffic Control Facility Supervisor.

Ms. Bartlett holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Western Carolina University; a Master of Public Administration from Troy State University; and a Master of Science in Aeronautics from Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University. Ms. Bartlett completed NAVAIR's Senior Executive Management Development Program in 2005 and graduated from the Federal Executive Institute in 2008. She is Defense Acquisition Workforce Improvement Act certified in Program Management (Level III).

Her awards include the Navy Overseas Service Ribbon (4), the National Defense Service Medal, Navy Achievement Medal, Navy Unit Commendation, and Citations for performance during high tempo special operations.
