

Department of Defense Intellectual Property Forum 2023

D. Daniel Dzara, II

Associate Counsel for Acquisition, Technology and Logistics, Headquarters U.S. Department of the Air Force, Washington, D.C. (SAF/GCQ) and the Deputy Director of Intellectual Property Law for SAF/GCQ.

Dan Dzara is an Associate Counsel for Acquisition, Technology and Logistics, Headquarters U.S. Department of the Air Force, Washington, D.C. (SAF/GCQ) and the Deputy Director of Intellectual Property Law for SAF/GCQ. As a member of the Air Force Intellectual Property Cadre, he is responsible for providing advice on all aspects of intellectual property law, focusing on its intersection with and effect on acquisitions.

Mr. Dzara re-joined the Department of the Air Force in February 2020 from the Department of the Treasury where he served as an Attorney-Advisor in the General Law Division of the Office of General Counsel. Prior to his time at Treasury, Mr. Dzara served in the Government as an Assistant General Counsel (Technology and Operations Support) at the Broadcasting Board of Governors (now known as the U.S. Agency for Global Media) and as a Counsel in SAF/GCQ's IP Office. Throughout his Federal career, he has advised on a myriad of acquisition and intellectual property issues, including providing assistance with the drafting, solicitation, negotiation, and award of numerous contracts, advising on licensing issues, and preparing an extensive number of international broadcasting agreements. He also has private practice experience advising clients on patent and trademark issues.

EDUCATION

1996 Bachelor of Arts, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Chapel Hill, NC.

1999 Juris Doctor, Tulane Law School, New Orleans, LA.

2000 Master of Laws Degree, Intellectual Property, The George Washington University Law School, Washington D.C.

2005 Master of Laws Degree, Government Procurement, The George Washington University Law School, Washington D.C.