Allen Kerbow

Aerospace and Defense Consulting Director, Dassault Systemes (3DS)

Allen manages Dassault Systemes' (3DS) technical organization that supports all North American A&D customers, from the Government, to large OEMs, to nascent startups. Allen leverages both his technical and business backgrounds to evolve and advance the way 3DS engages customers. Prior to 3DS, Allen worked at Lockheed Martin Missiles and Fire Control, primarily in the Manufacturing organizations. Allen lives just outside Dallas, TX, where he proudly roots on his Texas A&M Aggies with their trademarked slogan: "there's always next year."
