

The Pricing and Contracting Legends Award

1. ELIGIBILITY: Military members or Government civilian employees within the DoD pricing/contracting community at any grade level who have demonstrated the traits as detailed below throughout their contracting career.

2. EVALUATION CRITERIA: The Pricing and Contracting Legends Award recognizes leaders at all levels in the DoD contracting community that have developed, motivated and inspired others through formal and informal initiatives. The nominee who is selected for this honor will be recognized at a Senior Leader Meeting.

The six categories below summarize the traits exemplified by Pricing and Contracting Legends. Nominations will identify how the individual excelled in these areas and should explain the nominee's accomplishments.

1. Mentorship and Dedication to Helping Others

The nominee provides mentorship and coaching, and seeks opportunities to help others grow and improve in their careers.

2. Selfless Service

The nominee places the mission and consideration for others before their own wants and performs services/duties without expecting reward.

3. Creative Thinking

The nominee is creative in their thinking and approach to problem solving. Their efforts support the growth of the profession through the introduction of innovative ideas.

4. Collaboration

The nominee builds teams with a spirit of community and cohesion; involves others in developing plans and goals; and recognizes contributions and gives others visibility and credit. The nominee develops extensive networks across organizations and routinely uses these networks for the benefit of the workforce.

5. Contracting Expertise

The nominee demonstrates expertise in navigating the complexities of pricing and contracting.

6. Leadership Qualities

The nominee demonstrates exceptional leadership qualities through his or her willingness to lead on tough issues. He or she excels in leadership roles on multi-disciplined teams.
