DEFENSE CONTRACT AUDIT AGENCY

March 1987

FOREWORD

This summary report presents the latest available Defense Contract Audit Agency (DCAA) statistics on the independent research and development (IR&D) and bid and proposal (B&P) costs allocated to defense contracts. The statistical data are to be included in the Secretary of Defense's annual report to the Congress on or before 15 March 1987, in accordance with Public Law 91-441, Section 203, paragraph (c).

The major defense contractors included in this summary are those which had an annual auditable volume of costs incurred in excess of $40 million or required 5,000 or more staff hours of DCAA's direct audit work a year. To be compatible with the advance agreement reports prepared by the Army, Navy, and Air Force, this report also includes data of other defense contractors which, although not meeting the above criteria, negotiated IR&D/B&P advance agreements. Contractors specifically excluded from this summary are construction companies, educational institutions, foreign contractors and overseas operations of U.S. contractors, insurance companies, marine transport contractors, and military medical contractors. These contracting activities incurred nominal or no IR&D/B&P costs.

DCAA obtained the IR&D/B&P cost and sales data from contractors' records, that is, data as recorded by the contractors. Costs and sales reported here do not necessarily represent audited amounts. Where actual cost and sales data were not available, as in the case of contractors which had not closed their books for 1986, DCAA auditors obtained reasonable estimates. Where costs not charged to IR&D were determined to be more properly classified as IR&D, these costs were reclassified by the auditors and included in IR&D costs incurred. Reclassified costs were accepted to the extent that the adjusted IR&D costs accepted do not exceed negotiated advance agreement ceilings.

Page 1 summarizes the sales and the IR&D and B&P costs incurred by 108 defense contractors, comprising 339 reporting divisions and/or operating groups, during their fiscal years 1985 and 1986. It also shows the amounts accepted which are allocable to all work, and the share allocated to DoD contracts. Amounts accepted which are allocable to all work represent costs accepted in overhead negotiations and through advance agreements. These costs are allocable to all contractor work performed--Government and commercial. The DoD share of the costs accepted each year is based on the contractors' actual methods of allocating such costs to DoD work. The IR&D and B&P summaries on pages 2 and 3 separate the data between those contractors and/or reporting divisions with negotiated advance agreements and those without.
