DLA PBL Role in DoD Guidance: Interim Defense Acquisition Guidebook; DoD TLCSM & PBL Template – 7 Mar 2003

• Invite DLA into early product support/PBL planning
  • Capitalize on DLA common support across systems
• Use DLA when best value for end-to-end, integrated supply chain management and logistics solutions:
  • Provisioning, cataloging, and logistics information management
  • Consumable parts support and associated services
  • World-wide warehousing and distribution services
  • Disposal and demilitarization services
• Deplete DLA-owned inventory when not continuing provider

DLA signs PBA with PM, PBL PSI, and/or Warfighter
DLA Value Proposition for PBL Support

• DLIS manages FLIS/multi-media logistics products & services
  • ECCMA selects NSN structure as world-class best practice
  • Low cost provider of cataloging & logistics information services: Won JSF Trade Study

• Weapon system lead centers managing supply chains for consumable parts and associated services for 1,400 systems
  • 1.2M unique NSNs ($6.1B) & 1.1M common NSNs ($9.7B)
  • Leveraged buying power
  • Strategic materiel sourcing; long-term contracts; strategic supplier alliances; direct vendor delivery
DDL Value Proposition for PBL Support

DDC world-wide warehousing/distribution services

- 19 facilities in CONUS – hub & spoke; cross-docking
- 7 facilities OCONUS and forward stock positioning
  - Germersheim; Pearl Harbor; Yokosuka; Camp Carroll on Korean Peninsula; Kuwait (Class IV in Bahrain); Guam; Sigonella NAS, Italy
- Infrastructure in place at Services’ maintenance depots
  - Support lean initiatives
- Dedicated truck service from DDs
- Strategic distribution platforms: Susquehanna & San Joaquin
- Container consolidation points for deployed forces: DDSP/DDJC
- Tailored services such as kitting with DSCR/DSCC SCMs

DRMS world-wide disposal/demilitarization operations
DLA Value Proposition for PBL Support

Projected DLA Sales for FY2004: $28.9B; 22,000 People

Working Capital Fund A Competitive DLA Advantage!

- DLA will buy to customers’ forecasts (from PMs/Services’ commercial, organic, public-private partnership PBL PSIs)
  - Customer does not pay until the point of use/consumption
- Enables commercial PBL PSI to use scarce investment dollars for other PBL needs
  - Component/Subsystem/System reliability improvements
  - Spiral development/technology insertion
  - Attack high cost drivers for repairable components/DLRs
- True win – win partnership
- DLA brings core competencies to bear – low risk; high value!
- Let other partners concentrate on what they do best

SCM Teaming and Warfighter Focus the Key!
DLA Transformational Initiatives

• Business Systems Modernization (BSM):
  • ERP – SAP; APS – Manugistics; Accenture is Integrator

• Customer Relationship Management (CRM):
  • Collaborative Demand Planning with Major Customers
  • Customer Cells at Lead Defense Supply Center
  • Performance Based Agreements

• Strategic Supplier Alliances
  • Long-Term Corporate Contracts with Major OEMs for all Sole Source Parts

• Strategic Material Sourcing:
  • Grouping Items for Long-Term Contracts with Performance Metrics

• Supplier Relationship Management with Major Suppliers
  • Collaborative Supply Planning and Performance Reviews
  • SRMs and Integrated Supplier Teams at Lead Defense Supply Center

Collaborative Planning & Sharing Information 2 Ways End-to-End in the Supply Chain
DLA Support to Combatant Commanders

- DLA LNOs: Participate in Deliberative & Crisis Planning and Exercises
  - OJCS/J-4 and Combatant Commands
  - DLA Annexes to OPLANs and CONPLANs

Some Final Thoughts on the PBL Arena

“The Man In The Arena”

“It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs, who comes short again and again, because there is no effort without error and shortcoming; but who does actually strive to do good deeds; who knows great enthusiasms; the great devotions; who spends himself in a worthy cause; who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid soles who neither know victory nor defeat.”

Theodore Roosevelt – 26th President of the USA – April 23, 1910

DLA is an enthusiastic doer in the PBL Arena!
