

We respectfully submit the attached input:

Request that the claims be pushed to the CACO (Corporate Administrative Contract Officer) and aggregated for the entire corporation. This process will reduce the amount of effort and time for both the company and the government to respond to these claims. It also allows the contractor to package these costs as indirect rather than direct, so the historical charging for the quarantined employees is nearly irrelevant.

Michael W Coulter
Senior Vice President, Business Development and
President, DRS International