

Org: SAGEFirst, Inc.

Name: Don Paxton

Section number: 1641

Input: Facilitating defense against cyber-attack can be enhanced with the procurement of devices that include change prevention or change control protocols in the operating system of such devices. To incorporate such a protocol procurement preference should be given to devices with operating systems that allocate access to system resources via applications known to need such resources.