SUBJECT: 2018 Pricing and Contracting Legends Award

I am pleased to announce that Ms. Janice Muskopf, Chief of the Pricing Division, Contracts Division at Headquarters Air Force Materiel Command, and Mr. Scott Ulrey, Deputy Director, Contracts Management Office, Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency, are the joint recipients of the 2018 Pricing and Contracting Legends Award. Established in 2013, this award honors contracting legends by recognizing individuals who embody leadership and mentorship in executing the defense mission. Ms. Muskopf and Mr. Ulrey were selected from a list of highly qualified nominees as the individuals who best exemplify the contracting wisdom and values that characterize such inspirational leaders. Their commitment to the professional development and mentorship of the workforce, effective collaboration, and creative leadership, make them two of the most influential and respected leaders within the Department of Defense acquisition and contracting community.

I also want to express my appreciation to the organizations that submitted nominations for this prestigious award. All the nominees are outstanding leaders, respected mentors and subject matter experts within the contracting community. They were recognized for embodying the value and underlying tenets of this award and making a significant difference.

On behalf of the entire acquisition workforce, I extend my heartfelt congratulations to Janice and Scott on their legendary careers.
