MEMORANDUM FOR COMMANDERS AND ACTIVITY DIRECTORS

SUBJECT: Appointing Certifying Officers

References:

b. DoDFMR Vol 5, Chap. 33, Accountable Officials and Certifying Officers (http://www.dtic.mil/comptroller/fmr/05/05_33.pdf)

Reference a directs the appointment of certifying officers to authorize federal payments. This memorandum delegates to commanders, activity directors and other personnel of equivalent position, the authority to appoint certifying officers. Certifying officers are accountable to ensure payments are legal, proper and correct by their certification on vouchers prior to payment by a disbursing official. Certifying officers are pecuniarily liable for payments they certify. Certifying officials may rely upon information supplied by a duly appointed accountable official. However, in accordance with Comptroller General Decision B-280765, May 4, 2000, accountable officials may not be held pecuniarily liable for payments based on information they provide the certifying officer.

Specific responsibilities of certifying officers, both in general terms and as they relate to specific types of payments are contained in reference b. Also in reference b are the qualifications of certifying officers, the selection and appointment process, the requirement for periodic review of payments, procedures for conducting those reviews, and the requirements for requesting relief from pecuniary liability. Enclosed is a sample for the appointment and acknowledgement of appointment for certifying officers.

This delegation is effective immediately.
