

Mr. Paul D. Cramer

Mr. Paul D. Cramer, a member of the Senior Executive Service since June 2013, is the Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for Installations focused on Energy, Installations, and the Environment. In this capacity, he serves as the principal advisor to the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Sustainment on all policies and programs pertaining to installations, environment, installation and operational energy, and infrastructure resilience. His portfolio includes installation management, military construction, and utilities and energy management.

Mr. Cramer previously served as the Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army for Installations, Housing, and Partnerships, where he was responsible for construction, housing, and Army installations.

His previous positions also include: Chief of Public Works, Installation Management Command, Korea-Region; and Deputy Garrison Commander, US Army Garrison, Yongsan, Korea; Director of Public Works, Ft. Irwin, CA; and Director of Public Works, Ft. Polk, LA;

Mr. Cramer is a licensed Professional Engineer in the Commonwealth of Virginia. He obtained his Master's Degree in Engineering Management from the University of Missouri-Rolla, and his Bachelor's Degree in Civil Engineering from South Dakota State University.

Mr. Cramer was recognized for his achievements with the Meritorious Civilian Service Award, multiple Superior Civilian Service Medals and multiple Army Commanders Award for Civilian Service.

