SUBJECT: 2019 Department of Defense Packaging Innovation Excellence and Packaging
Production Achievement Awards Call for Nominations

The Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Sustainment is again partnering with the National Institute of Packaging, Handling, and Logistics Engineers to sponsor the Fiscal Year (FY) 2019 Department of Defense (DoD) Packaging Innovation Excellence Award and Packaging Production Achievement Award. These annual awards highlight the Department’s packaging accomplishments and recognize outstanding contributions to packaging innovation, productivity, and performance. The awards are open to DoD military and civilian personnel who contributed significantly to the DoD packaging program in FY 2019. We request your nominations by December 13, 2019. Nomination instructions are attached.

The FY 2018 Packaging Innovation Excellence Award winner was U.S. Army Natick
Soldier Research, Development and Engineering Center (NSRDEC) and Army Sustainment
Command (ASC) Packaging Storage and Containerization Center (PSCC) Team. The FY 2018
Packaging Production Achievement Award winner was Defense Logistics Agency (DLA)
Distribution Oklahoma City, Preservation, Packaging, Packing and Marking (PPP&M) Team.
For additional information see https://www.acq.osd.mil/log/SCI/dod_packaging_awards.html.

I encourage your continued support in promoting innovation and efficiency in DoD packaging. My point of contact is Mr. Nate Wurst, ODASD for Logistics, at 571-372-8590 or DSN 372-8590.

Packaging Awards, Eligibility Requirements, Nomination Criteria and Submission Requirements

There are two distinct Department of Defense Packaging Awards: Packaging Innovation Excellence Award and Packaging Production Achievement Award. The Eligibility Requirements, Nomination Criteria and Timeframe and Submission Requirements are stated below.

1. Department of Defense Packaging Innovation Excellence Award:

a. Eligibility Requirements: Typically, the nominee (individual or team) is a packaging specialist, technologist, engineer, chemist, logistics manager, instructor, or holds a similar position within the packaging community or a directly related field. This award is open to Department of Defense military and civilian personnel.

b. Nomination Criteria:
   - An initiated/recommended packaging innovation or design, engineering policy, technical procedure, or operational change that resulted in enhanced asset protection; a documented reduction in, man-hours or costs; or simplified and/or reduced administrative duties.
   - Suggestion awards, packaging design enhancements, value engineering proposals, accepted packaging engineering change proposals, performance based logistics packaging improvements, validated readiness improvements, cost reductions, or cost avoidance actions associated with packaging design excellence.
   - Significant system/operational improvements or enhancements.
   - Significantly increased and/or consistently accomplished outstanding packaging design improvements, industrial production enhancements and job performance.
   - Novel or unique packaging designs, redesigns, or process improvements resulting in more efficient and cost-effective packaging.

2. Department of Defense Packaging Production Achievement Award:

a. Eligibility Requirements: The nominee (individual or team) typically works in the execution of packaging (hands-on) or closely related field. This may include supervisors and team leaders if supported by the achievement nomination. This award is open to DoD military and civilian personnel.
b. Nomination Criteria:
   • An initiated/recommended packaging process, procedure, or operational change that resulted in a documented reduction in industrial man-hours, costs, or simplified and/or reduced administrative duties associated with the packaging function.
   • Suggestion awards, performance based logistics improvements, validated cost reductions, or cost avoidance actions associated with packaging production efforts.
   • Significant packaging operational or process improvements or enhancements.
   • Increased and/or consistently accomplished outstanding packaging production and job performance.
   • The effort is clearly shown to be over and above the nominee’s normal workload.

c. Time Frame and Submission Requirements:
   • The event for which a person, group, or team is nominated for the 2019 awards must have occurred from October 1, 2018 to September 30, 2019.
   • Due Date: Submissions are required no later than December 13, 2019 in accordance with the submission guidelines in attachment.
   • Note: The dollar value of an item of supply or population of items subject to this award may not necessarily be the deciding factor considered in the evaluation process; the wide variance in the value of the items at different activities may not reflect the respective levels of effort or achievement of the nominees.
